Scholars is a Canadian company originating in Northern Ontario. They opened our first centre in 1999 and since then, they've helped thousands of families across Canada achieve results that matter through their proprietary programs and superb teachers.

Scholars tutors students of all ages, in all subjects! In addition, they work with students who are looking to catch up, keep up, or get ahead.

In an affordable, professional, and comfortable environment, Scholars will provide a broad range of individualized, relevant and creative learning opportunities of the highest standards to students of all ages.
